

Pt. Sundarlal Sharma (Open) University Chhattisgarh

ORDINANCE No. 01

Admission of Students

(Under Section 27 (2) of the Chhattisgarh Act. No. 26/2004)

Admission to the University under the scheme of distance education shall be open to the residents of Chhattisgarh irrespective of caste and creed having the following objective –

- (a) To provide a system of student centred self placed learning.
- (b) To provide a flexible, diversified and open system of education.
- (c) To develop by providing wider access to higher education to persons of all ages and sex particularly to working persons and to economically or otherwise hand capped and persons residing in remote areas.
- (d) To provide means of up-gradation of skills and qualifications.
- (e) To develop education as a life long activity so that the individual can referesh his knowledge in an existing discipline or to acquire knowledge in new areas.
- (f) Distance education shall be based on the supply of reading materials for home study by the learner, supported and supplemented by contact programmes, student, assignments/response sheets, library facilities, study centres/learning resource centres, radio/ TV programmes and audiovisual aids etc.
- (g) Admission to different courses of study of the University shall be flexible as for as possible. Student who have passed Higher Secondary Examination of a recognised board shall eligible for admission in a graduate/ Diploma course, while student possessing graduate degree shall be eligible for seeking admission in a post graduate course / post graduate diploma course / B.Ed. / B.P.Ed. course. People of mature age and in professions, who do frequently acquire knowledge/skill in formally by their own, shall be able to do the diploma/ graduate / post graduate distance education course by admission, even through they have not formally passed next lower level of the examination. In their case admission will be by a written test to ensure that the enrolled candidate have at least a minimum knowledge, to be able to successfully negotiate the course. There will be no minimum or maximum age limited for the distance education University Course.

(Approved by Chhattisgarh Govt. Higher Education Deptt. wide order No. F 3 - 41/2005/h.ed./38, dated 30-07-2005)